

Practice Description

Jim is a litigation attorney with significant experience handling a wide variety of cases arising in federal and state as well as administrative proceedings. He also has significant experience litigating employment-related issues, including the enforceability of non-compete and non-solicitation covenants, payment of wages claims, and discrimination and retaliation claims arising under federal and state employment laws. Jim has handled successful litigation of these and other types of cases at trial and on appeal. His background also provides him with valuable skills in advising on any regulatory or litigation issues that relate to the federal government.

Representative Matters

- V.C. Summer Consolidated Dockets, S.C. Public Service Commission: successfully second-chaired a three-week hearing on behalf of the S.C. Office of Regulatory Staff regarding the recovery of $5 billion in costs for the abandoned V.C. Summer nuclear project. Litigation required the taking of 26 depositions, review of thousands of pages of documents, and examination of 41 witnesses in a compressed time period.
- Mitchell v. Postmaster General: won appeal challenging defense verdict in Title VII trial.
- Solem v. United States: won trial for VA surgeon on medical malpractice claim based on general surgical care.

Honors and Awards

- Recognized as “Legal Elite” of the Upstate, Energy and Utilities Law, by Business Magazine Greenville, 2019

Government Service

- Armor Officer, United States Army, 1996-2001
- Assistant U.S. Attorney, Dept. of Justice, 2007-2018

Education

2004, J.D. Stanford Law School
1996, B.S. United States Military Academy, West Point, NY

Additional information about Jim Cox can be found here.

JAMES E.
COX, JR.
Of Counsel

864.242.8212

864.298.3940

jcox@wyche.com

200 East Camperdown Way
Greenville, South Carolina 29601

W Y C H E

Attorneys at Law

864.242.8200 | wyche.com

JAMES E.
COX, JR.
Of Counsel

864.242.8212

864.298.3940

jcox@wyche.com

200 East Camperdown Way
Greenville, South Carolina 29601

W Y C H E

Attorneys at Law

864.242.8200 | wyche.com